Greeting speech of the President of the European University Sports Association

Mr. Alberto Gualtieri

Dear athletes, officials and guests,

I am honoured to welcome you to the V European Universities Karate Championship.

On behalf of EUSA, I would like to thank the Organising Committee for what has been done for the organisation of this important event. I am glad to state once again that our Championships have aroused large interest in the European University Movement. This success of our events, in terms of participation and overall organisation is due to the devotion of the Organising Committees and local Authorities which has been giving their valuable time to coordinate the running of this Championship.

To all the persons involved in this event, I wish all the best.

EUSA activities are only possible due to the immense level of support and encouragement we constantly receive from our National University Sport Associations, from the huge work carried out by our Secretariat and our staff. I am sure that our new IT system has strongly simplified the enrolment procedures both for the participating teams and Organising Committees.

Last, but surely not least, I would like to acknowledge all the athletes taking part in our events. I hope you will enjoy this Championship and that you will compete for the best placing bringing with you the Olympics spirit.

I hope you will always take with you this spirit which I consider fundamental for the wellness of the University Sport.

BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA – Short History

Most Bosnian historians think the Bosnia has been an independent state since the ninth century. At the beginning the rulers of Bosnia were bans. The first known ban was Ban Borić and then more famous Ban Kulin. After the coronation of Ban Tvrtko I Kotromanić in 1377. the rulers of Bosnia became kings. Bosnia kept its independence until the Turks came in 1463 when it becomes part of the Ottoman Empire.

Although a small country, Bosnia and Herzegovina has a very rich culture that influenced the neighboring countries of the Balkans (music, literature, film, art and applied art, design and modern media). Bosnia and Herzegovina, along with Hungary, is the only country in the area with more than one Nobel Prize winners: Vladimir Prelog (chemistry) and Ivo Andrić (literature). Sarajevo was the host of the 14 Olympic Winter Games which were the games of peace and friendship.

Music in Bosnia and Herzegovina has long and famous history. Traditional Bosnian music is a mixture of different influences. The most famous is SEVDALINKA, a very specific love song with a very long tradition and its characteristics are poetic and romantic song lyrics with a bit of melancholy which is not surprising because the word „sevdah“ in Arabic language means „love“.

Bosnia has a lot of important and famous writers. The most important writer in our country and the Nobel Prize winner for literature is Ivo Andrić. He won the Nobel Prize in 1961 for his novel „Na Drini ćuprija“. During the Ottoman period many writers from Bosnia were well-known in the oriental world and in Bosnia there was a new branch of literature called Alhamiado literature.

It is important to mention the three religions present in Bosnia which have a great influence on cultural development of the country. Sarajevo is the only town, along with Jerusalem, which has Orthodox Church, mosque, Catholic Church and a synagogue in the area of 100 square meters. The most important exhibit of the Zemaljski museum in Sarajevo is the Sarajevo Haggadah, a traditional Jewish prayer book which was brought here in the 16 century by the Sephards who were expelled from Spain. Oriental heritage of Bosnia and Herzegovina can be seen in many examples of oriental, sacral and secular architecture.
